Meet Our Speakers

TANIA ELAHEE

EarthCorps Board Member

Growing up in Seattle, Tania developed a love of the outdoors by exploring neighborhood parks. After serving as a Peace Corps Volunteer in Nicaragua, her career has focused on multinational project and product management, and corporate social responsibility. She has visited more than 40 countries and is fluent in Spanish.

ANYA OGORODNIKOVA

Environmental Educator | Irkutsk, Russia

As Director of the Baikal Interactive Environmental Center, Anya develops opportunities for students of all ages to creatively engage with nature and become environmental champions. She acts as educational advisor to the Great Baikal Trail association. Anya served with EarthCorps in 2010-2011.

DJEMSON JEUDY

Executive Director & Educator | Gonaives, Haiti

Through his work as an educational program manager for REBUILD Globally and as Executive Director at a family-run orphanage, Djemson inspires Haiti's youth to tackle the country's environmental problems. He leads reforestation efforts through regular tree planting events. Djemson is a proud EarthCorps alum from 2013.

JUAN PÉREZ SÁEZ

Energy & Climate Campaign Manager | Denver, CO

At The Wilderness Society, Juan designs and leads advocacy campaigns that drive federal policy change to protect our public lands, climate, and western communities from reckless energy development. Originally from Panama, Juan led the country's first ever National Reforestation day. He is a Fulbright Scholar and served with EarthCorps in 2008-2009.

RINZIN PHUNJOK LAMA

Conservation Biologist | Humla, Nepal

Working with Third Pole Conservancy, Rinzin studies big cats, like snow leopards in Annapurna, Nepal. His work combines community-level engagement and field studies to ensure the conservation of wildlife and livelihoods. Rinzin is an EarthCorps alum from 2014.

Meet Our Speakers

EBONY WELBORN

2020 Volunteer Specialist

Ebony has a degree in environmental studies and experience with wildlife rehabilitation. Her appreciation for the outdoors began at an early age, exploring the outdoors and learning to protect nature's gifts.

SAVANNAH SMITH

2020 Volunteer Specialist

Savannah is a recent graduate of Western Washington University with a B.S. in Biology with a Marine Emphasis. Biology has taught her that every interaction is important and even small changes can make a difference. She strives to improve the quality of life for all organisms.

HANNAH WILSON

2020 Outreach Specialist

Hannah graduated from the University of Washington with a BS in Environmental Science and Resource Management and a minor in Geography. She is passionate about addressing environmental justice issues.

EMILY JONES

2020 Crew Leader

Emily studied Urban Studies at Brown University and spent a summer with Bedford Audubon in their native plant garden. It was there that she gained a deeper understanding of our role in the environment while also engaging others to do the same.

JESSA GARIBAY-YAYEN

Co-Founder/Executive Director | Palawan, Philippines

Jessa leads the Centre for Sustainability PH, a women-and Youth-led conservation NGO. Her work focuses on community organizing, scientific research, and political lobbying to protect the Philippines' last remaining forests. She is a Climate Reality Leader, a member of the IUCN Otter Specialist Group, a Licensed Environmental Planner, and EarthCorps alumna from 2012-2013.

WAYS TO GIVE

There are many ways to give a gift! Your support helps to fund emerging environmental leaders who work to improve the health of our planet, starting right here in the Puget Sound region.

Visit earthcorps.ejoinme.org/give to choose the option that works for you!

Silent Auction

Bid on auction items that will make staying close to home extra special, all while supporting EarthCorps! Auction will open October 9 and close at 6:50pm on October 15.

Give Tools, Gear, and Plants

Make a gift to sponsor the hardworking gear and native plants that help us get the job done.

Buy Apparel

If you're ready to show off your EarthCorps pride, head to the online apparel sale to purchase t-shirts, sweatshirts, and other "swag".

Virtual Paddle Raise

Visit earthcorps.ejoinme.org/revive to make a gift of any amount to EarthCorps!

Looking to make a gift through check or stock transfer? Planning to make a gift recommendation to a donor advised fund?

You can pledge a gift of any amount by emailing Beth Cohen at beth@earthcorps.org to let us know about your plans.
